NOBLE WOMAN

Is Mrs. Jefferson Davis-Gen. Curtis Tells of a Recent Visit

HER SOUTHERN HOME

She Has Contributed, Through Her Influence and Power, to Bring About Harmonious Relations Between the North and South-Has Avoided the Public Gaze.

Ogdensburg Journal: General N. M. Curtis, of Ogdensburg, was a guest of Mrs. Jefferson Davis on Monday.—Canton Plain Dealer.

When shown the above item and asked to give something for publication regarding his visit, General Curtis said: Yes, I was in Canton on Monday, and had the pleasure of calling on Mrs. Jefferson Davis. She is a most interesting woman and one who has kept well informed upon all public matters for the last half century, both relating to our own and foreign countries, and she takes the liveliest interest in stirring events of the present as well as those of the past. It was the first time! had had the pleasure of meeting Mrs. Davis, although I had for many years known some of her intimate friends.

I have been interested in Misissippi since 1850, when my brother, Andrew Jackson Curtis, settled in Vicksburg, where he lived until failing health compelled him to return to St. Lawrence county, where he died in July, 1858. He was a personal friend of Mr. Davis, and among my brother's papers were severat letters from him relating to politi-cal affairs in Mississippi, – House Adjoined Davis Mansion.

"On my entering Richmond, April 12, 1865. I became a guest of James H. Grant, whose home adjoined the Davis mansion, and Mrs. Grant was one of Mrs. Davis' intimate friends. At that time Mrs. Grant related to Mrs. Curtis and myself many incidents of Mrs. Da-vis' kindness to the soldiers and afflict. ed people of Richmond 'I came to know at the close of the war many Mississippians, every one of whom I have been able to count my friend. In my congressional service I vas fortunate in having the support of the Mississippi delegation, as I did generally those of the south for every measure I introduced, and I was glad to assure Mrs. Davis of my appreciation of the action of her friends, which aided me in the passage of many measures calculated to promote the interests of my district.

I was also glad of the opportunity to tell her how much she has by her influence and power, contributed, through her acquaintance in the north as well as the south, to bring about the harmonious relations which now happily exist among the people of all sections of the country. The St. Lawrence Uni-versity and the people of Canton, in June, 1899, testified in a most impressive manner their liberality and generous sentiments toward the people of the south in conferring upon Colonel Lamb, one of her most active and distinguish-ed soldiers and civilians, the honorary degree of LL. D. During the vacation season that Mrs. Davis may spend in Canton she will be enabled to contribute much in creating and extending those feelings of good citizenship which grow out of friendly association. Agreeable Impressions.

"Those of our people who meet Mrs. Davis will carry away the most agreeable impressions of an interview with a highly cultured and refined woman, who has parsed through the most important and interesting half century of our country's existence, and who speaks interestingly of every public event, and leaves the impression that after more than seventy years of acquaintance with public characters of this and European countries, she is in full posses sion of all those qualities which dignify her sex and feels the keenest interest in every measure relating to the public welfare of the country, which is to her, as to them, the best and most beloved.

I have replied to your inquiry with many misgivings regarding the propriety of answering the request, lest I might trespass upon the private rights siderable period, but there is also a provision that the instalments may be paid in full on or after August 15, under a discount at the rate of 3 per cent. No information can be obtained as to how iremittances will be made, and this confuses the estimates as to the future effect on the money market. Gold continues to accumulate in New York on payments by the sub-treasury to the banks of drafts on the account of the gold deposited at Pacific points. The banks have gained from the sub-treasury since Friday $2,682,000 on this account. The money market is, therefore, little affected by the gold exports. The London money market must make prevision this week not only for $2,500,000 for the deposit with subscriptions to the new war loan, but must provide also a £2,500,000 instalment on the former, or "khaki" loan. Whether the Bank of England can avoid an increase in its discount rate this week is a matter of interested conjecture in its influence on the future gold movements.

Bonds were dull and irregular. Total sales, par value, $325,000. United States 5s declined ¼ in the bid prices.

reports of liberal export sales gave a better tone to the market and prices recovered somewhat. September advanced to 754 bid, and that was the Price at the close.

Northwest receipts were 210 cars, compared with 304 last week and 190 last year, Chicago receipts were 330 cars, 63 of contract grade. Total primary receipts were 945,000 bushels, against 611,000 bushels a year ago. The world's visible supply, according to Bradstreet's, increased 1475,000 bushels, about what the trade had been looking for. New York reported export engagements of 80 carloads. Seaboard clearances of wheat and flour were put at 275,000 bushels.

Corn was dull for the most part, but firm at all times. The market opened strong and higher on continued hot weather in the West, which was reported to be doing great damage to the crop. Offerings at no time were heavy, and the market easily absorbed them. Country acceptances were light and the shipping demand was good. Receipts were 110 cars. September ranged from 33½ to 33% 33% c.

Oats were quiet, but steady at small advance over yesterday, traders being influenced principally by the strength developed in other grain markets. A feature was the entire absence of country selling, and the most of the buying orders were from that source. Receipts were heavy, 713 cars. September ranged from 21½ to 22c, and closed ¼c higher, at 21½ 622c.

Provisions were steady with a fair general trade, with packers the best buyers. There was some outside demands, presumably influenced by the government demands for meats. There were no new disturbing developments as regards the yellow fever outbreak. There was he demand was excellent and had considerable influence on trading. At the close September pork was 2½c higher, at 31 57½. September lard, 2½c higher, at 31 655, and September ribs 2½c higher, at 37 1607 17½.
